

REVEAL SECRET WEDDING OF L. A. ARTIST TO U. C. STUDENT

Harold
Berry and Tedi
Strashun

Couple in Secret
Marriage and Fashion Drawings
by Bride

Musical and Art Circles Surprised as Yule Season Marriage Told

Art and musical circles of Los Angeles were surprised today to learn that Tedi Strashun, whose fashion caricatures have received international recognition, became the bride of Harold Berry, student of the University of California in Berkeley, at a secret wedding in San Bernardino on Dec. 26.

Following the marriage the young artist, who blushing admitted today that she was 16, left with her father, Leon Strashun, well known conductor of the Metropolitan orchestra, for Honolulu.

But the young husband proved too great an attraction for the youthful bride and she returned to Los Angeles after a four-month sojourn on the islands, with the excuse of "homesickness."

A chance opening of a letter from young Berry by the girl's parents led to the disclosure of the secret wedding.

"But I am going to continue my art studies and do my fashion caricatures," Mrs. Berry declared today.

"And while I may not finish my college course," Berry added, "I'm going to study art, too, and Tedi will be my teacher."

Berry is the son of Mrs. Agnes Berry, 3241 Arlington avenue. He is 23 years old and was a junior at Berkeley.

The young couple are at home at 1117 Thirty-seventh drive.